

IUD evaluation

Trainee: _____
 Evaluator: _____
 Date: _____

Medical Knowledge	B	DC	C
Obtains relevant history
Gives patient anticipatory guidance
Skills	B	DC	C	N/O
Assesses adequacy of setup
Bimanual exam
Speculum placement
No touch technique
Application of tenaculum
Sounding of uterus
Loading of IUD
Placement of IUD
Cutting of strings
Comfortable removal of speculum
Communicates effectively with patient
Anticipates difficult cases
Manages difficult cases
Recognizes complications
Manages complications

B Beginner – Requires immediate supervision at all times and specific instruction to be able to perform the stated task. Possesses a basic understanding of relevant concepts and related protocols.

DC Developing Competence – Requires intermittent supervision, but can perform the stated task without detailed instruction. Recognizes complications as they arise, but may not be able to identify the associated management options.

C Competent – Infrequently requires assistance, can perform all steps of the procedure independently. Describes or demonstrates comprehension of the management options for atypical cases.

N/O Not observed

Specific Comments/Examples:
